

DAY	Time	ROOM	EVENT
Wednesday September 30	8.30 am to 11:00 am	Computer Lab 1 st Floor	Microeconomics and International Trade Theory waiver exams; in order to take these, you must sign-up two weeks in advance (econwaiver@jhu.edu)
	11:00 am	Auditorium	General Orientation Meeting – all students must attend. Introduction by Professor Kenneth Keller, Director of the Bologna Center. Presentations by Bologna Center Faculty Members, the Academic Coordinator, and the SAIS Associate Dean of Student Affairs.
	1:00 pm to 3:30 pm	Computer Lab 1 st Floor	Microeconomics and International Trade Theory waiver exams; in order to take these, you must sign-up two weeks in advance (econwaiver@jhu.edu)
	1:30 to 3:30	Auditorium	Microeconomics Pre-term Final Exam
	4:00 pm	Auditorium	"International Relations" Information session by Professor Cesa, Professor of International Relations
	5.30 pm	Auditorium	"Nothing to Laugh About: Italian Politics Today" Lecture by Gianfranco Pasquino, Professor of Political Science, University of Bologna and Senior Adjunct Professor of Political Science, The Johns Hopkins SAIS Bologna Center.
Thursday October 1	8.30 am to 11:00 am	Computer Lab 1 st Floor	Macro and International Monetary Theory waiver exams; in order to take these, you must sign-up two weeks in advance (econwaiver@jhu.edu)
	9 to 11 am	Auditorium	Macroeconomics Pre-term Final Exam
	11:30 am to 2:00 pm	Computer Lab 1 st Floor	Macro and International Monetary Theory waiver exams; in order to take these, you must sign-up two weeks in advance (econwaiver@jhu.edu)
	11:30 am	Auditorium	Math diagnostic quiz – for students who plan to take Micro Macro in the fall or spring.
	2:00 pm to 4:00 pm	Auditorium	English Proficiency Exam (written section): mandatory for all non-native English-speaking students.
	4:30 pm	Auditorium	"International Economics" information session by Professor Plummer, Professor of International Economics
Friday October 2	9:00 am --	Room 301	CORE/COMP Examinations: Core Comparative National Systems, 9 to 12 noon America and the World Since 1945, 9 to 12:30 Comp II (Political Economies)& III (Europe and the World): 9 am to 1 pm Sign-up sheet on information wall to the left of the bar
	1:00 pm	ONLINE in ISIS	DEADLINE for COURSE REGISTRATION.
	1:00 pm --	Room 301	CORE Theories of International Relations, 1 to 4 pm CORE Evolution of the International System, 1 to 4.15 pm COMP I (History), 1 to 5 pm Sign-up sheet on information wall to the left of the bar
	5:30 pm	Auditorium	"Is the Italian Economy Overcoming the World Crisis?" Lecture by Vera Zamagni, Professor of Economic History, University of Bologna and Senior Adjunct Professor of International Economics, The Johns Hopkins University SAIS Bologna Center.
Monday October 5	10:30 am	Auditorium	"European Studies at the Bologna Center". Meeting with Professor Erik Jones, Professor of European Studies.
	11:30 am	Room 301	IR/ERE (Energy, Resources & Environment) Program, information session by Margel Highet, Associate Director ERE program, SAIS-Washington
	2:30 pm	See Schedule	CLASSES BEGIN
Tuesday October 6	10:30 am – 12:30 pm	Room TBA	Language Proficiency Written Exams for all languages offered except English. Details will be announced later.
	7:00 pm	Auditorium	"Medical Care in Bologna". Talk by Dr. Stephen Williams, English-speaking Internist and General Practitioner based in Bologna.
Wednesday, October 7	10:30 am - 3:00 pm	See language bulletin board	Language Placement Tests (to establish your entry level)- details will be posted on the BCWeb and on the office door of the Language Coordinator, room 213.
Thursday, October 8	12:45 pm	Room 301	WHS/Latin American Studies Program, presentation by Guadalupe Paz, Associate Director and Anne McKenzie, Program and Internship Coordinator, SAIS-Washington
Monday, October 12	10:30 am	Room 301	International Development Program, presentation by Cinnamon Dornsife, Professor and Associate Director, IDEV Program, SAIS-Washington.