Call for Papers

This call for papers closed on 29 February 2008. Click here for the FINAL PROGRAM.

The closing address was given by Peteris Zilgalvis (Head of Unit, DG Research) on the Framework 7 Program of the European Commission. You can find the powerpoint slides used in his presentation here: ZILGALVIS PRESENTATION.

ATTENTION PAPER GIVERS: The on-line paper room is still open to receive papers. In order to upload your paper onto the virtual paper room, paper presenters are asked to email them to ecpr\_riga\_papers@jhubc.it in either MS Word or (preferably) Adobe Acrobat (pdf) format. Please set your filename either to lastname_firstname (.doc or .pdf) or to the paper number in the subject line of the email that we sent you when accepting your paper (e.g. 123.doc or 456.pdf). Papers submitted after noon on Friday or during the weekend will be posted only the following Monday.

The ECPR Standing Group on the European Union is organizing its Fourth Pan-European Conference. It will be hosted by the University of Latvia in Riga from 25 to 27 September 2008. The Standing Group's Pan-European Conferences are the largest academic conferences on the European Union in Europe and bring together scholars from all over the world.

The Conference has eight sections covering major fields of current research on the EU.

- Theories of European Integration
- EU Institutions and Politics
- Political Economy of the European Union
- EU Law and Policies
- Gender, Diversity, and European Integration
- The Politics and Economics of EU Enlargement
- Foreign Policy and External Relations
- Migration and European Integration

The program chair will accept proposals for BOTH individual papers and whole panels (including a maximum of four papers). Proposals should be made on-line using the conference website.

Proposals for individual papers should include the name, affiliation, and contact details (including email address) for all paper authors, as well as a brief (max. 150 word) abstract and paper title.

Proposals for whole panels should include the full details for each paper (as above), plus the name, affiliation, and contact details for the panel convenor, chair, and discussant, as well as a short (max. 100 word) panel synopsis.

In all cases, persons making proposals should indicate which of the conference themes they feel their proposal best addresses.

The deadline for proposals is 29 February 2008.
